FROM THE RABBI

HAPPY SECULAR NEW YEAR?

Time and again I am asked what if any meaning January 1st has for me. It certainly has no significance as a religious day, and other than a later morning minyan and college football, has little other relevance. The solar year, however, does play a role in the Jewish calendar.

The Jewish calendar is essentially lunar. As our months are determined by the cycle of the moon, with a new month happening at every new moon. We do, however, have some solar components to our year. Passover must be in the spring and Sukkot in the fall. Seasons are dictated by the solar calendar, and this causes leap years in the Jewish calendar. Additionally, the prayer for rain which we add in the Amidah is only said during the rainy season, something else based on the solar calendar.

If I happen to be awake at midnight on December 31st, I will watch the ball drop and acknowledge the turning of the page toward 2017. I will definitely enjoy the later services in the morning and the wealth of sports programming. I know that while not my main calendar, the solar year dictates many aspects of Jewish life. For this reason I take note when I need to start writing different numbers on my checks.

Happy 2017 to all.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

At each monthly meeting of our Board, I listen as our Gabbi and Rabbi tell of our continued need of men to insure that we have a morning and nightly minyan. It is an ongoing struggle for each of us. And, through this article, I, too am asking each of our male members to help out.

Far too often, a person is denied the opportunity to recite Kaddish for a loved one because there is no minyan. Each of us must do our very best to ensure that the shul has a minyan each and every day. I am hopeful that each male who reads this article will pledge to join us for a morning or evening minyan. PLEASE CALL RABBI RUBIN and let him know that you are willing to help out. Give him a specific day and follow through on that commitment. Services usually last no longer than 30 or 40 minutes. Let us be able to say that Congregation Etz Chayim has minyanim every day and that anyone in our community can have the opportunity to say Kaddish for a loved one. I thank you for your support in this endeavor.

This month we celebrate the miracle of Chanukah. As we light the candles nightly, let us remember all that we are thankful for. I hope that each of you will be able to join us for our Chanukah Latke Party on December 25th. Wonderful activities are planned for one and all. Please mark your calendars to join us for an exciting afternoon.

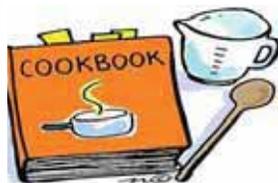

Bob Berkowitz, President

Congregants' Generosity Helps Many in Need

Jewish Family Service thanks Etz Chayim congregants for generously participating in this year's High Holiday Food Drive. Your donations will serve the needs of our community neighbors for quite some time. Last year over 500 people benefitted from the JFS food pantry. In addition to non-perishable items, families receive fresh vegetables during the growing season. Since food stamps cannot be used for detergent, paper towels, shampoo, etc. our clients are thrilled to receive these items from our pantry. In addition to food and personal care items, individuals receive information about other resources to help them get through the crisis. Your support is vital to the operation of the food pantry and greatly appreciated! Thank you to everyone who made the food drive possible. Todah rabah!

SHABBAT BIRTHDAY KIDDUSH LUNCH PLANNED FOR JANUARY BIRTHDAYS

Congregation Etz Chayim is sponsoring a birthday Kiddush luncheon to honor the members who are celebrating a birthday during the month of January.

Everyone is invited to share in the celebration!

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

(Beginning this month the synagogue will feature a member of the month.)

This month we spotlight Florian Grunberg. That's his real name, but to most of us he is simply called Freddy. Always a smile on his face, a story to share, Freddy warms all whom he encounters. For many, many years Freddy has made sure that he is present at our daily minyanim. Saturday mornings you will find him in the last row on the right side of the sanctuary – still a smile on his face. Recently, Freddy, now ninety years of age, was honored by his family with a special Kiddush lunch. It was important that the celebration be at the shul, a place that is so much a part of Freddy's life. We congratulate Freddie on his 90th birthday and wish him many more to come. If you ask Freddie what is important to him, he would answer, "My family." A relationship so very special that he was chosen by his grandson to be his best man in his wedding. We thank you Freddy for what you continue to do for the shul and its members. Truly you are a mensch.

OFFICE CLOSING

The office will be closed on Monday, January 16, 2017 in observance of Martin Luther King Day.

THANK YOU FROM THE INTRAFaITH BLOOD DRIVE CHAIRMEN

On Sunday, November 13th, the Jewish Community sponsored a successful blood drive which was held at Congregation B'nai Israel. The American Red Cross collected 26 units of blood. These life savings units were going to be used for any emergency over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. The need for blood is greater since donations are low at this time of year.

A gentleman from the Interfaith community once again came to Intra-faith & donated double reds. He faithfully comes every year to do this. Four gentlemen from CBI & Shomer also donated double reds. The advantage of donating double reds is that all parts of a unit of whole blood is put back into the donor except for their red cells. A unit of double reds is counted as two units of blood, which helps us towards our goal. We are very appreciative that we had so many walk-ins. A big thank you to all those individuals who kept their commitment, came to Intra-faith, & donated the gift of life.

Kudos to our wonderful volunteers from all three Shuls.

Congregation Etz Chayim

Temple Shomer Emunin

Alice Applebaum, Sue Hirsch, & Pam Jackson

We are grateful to the administrative staff & board members of Congregation B'nai Israel for being instrumental in having this annual drive @ CBI. Special thanks goes to Karen McQuade who prepared the delicious lunch. As well as to Larry Johnson building supervisor for all his much needed assistance setting up & taking down the all the tables & chairs & anything else that was needed.

Thanks go to Alice Applebaum for being our expert photographer, volunteer & chairperson for Shomer & to Devorah Shulamit, coordinator of Intra-faith, chairperson of CBI & volunteer. Our thanks to Elsa Leveton for being the chairperson for Etz Chayim all these many years.

The need for blood is constant. Emergencies do not take vacations. Please consider donating again in 56 days. For those of you who donated double reds, you can donate again in 112 days. We hope to see all of you at the 28th annual Interfaith Blood drive on June 24th & 25th 2017.

With much thanks & gratitude, Shalom, Alice Applebaum & Devorah Shulamit
