UPCOMING FEBRUARY EVENTS

It may be cold and snowy outside, but that does not keep our Etz Chayim family away from the fun inside. We begin the month with our Fireside Chat on Saturday evening, February 1st at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Charles and Phyllis Wittenberg. Rabbi Rubin will be the speaker and will be discussing “Scientific Explanations For Miraculous Events: What should our reaction as people of faith be as the scientific world seeks to explain the great miracles of history?” Everyone is invited.

Poker and Mahj are scheduled for Sunday, February 2nd at 10:00 a.m. Last month there were enough ladies playing to fill three tables and one table for poker. We have decided to schedule poker and mahj twice a month. The second session is scheduled for February 16th.

The February birthday and anniversary luncheon is planned for Saturday, February 8th following Shabbat services. Everyone is invited to help celebrate with our members who are observing a birthday or anniversary in February.

I am delighted to announce that our Rebbetzin Kerry Rubin is leading the Women’s Learning Hour each Wednesday morning beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the Weinblatt Library. She and her group will plan and lead a creative Tu B’Shevat seder on Sunday, February 9th at 10:00 a.m. Everyone is invited.

SAVE THE DATE: Mix and Mingle—Saturday, February 29th at 7:30 p.m. at the synagogue. There will be board games and card games as well as wine, beer and appetizers. The cost is $5.00 per person

FROM THE RABBI

AND THE STUDY OF TORAH IS EQUAL TO THEM ALL

As part of the morning blessings we recite everyday, we read a portion from the Talmud. This section speaks of things that we do for which we have benefit in this world as well as the World to Come. The section ends by saying that Torah learning is equal to all of the other deeds listed.

Study of Torah has always been viewed as the most lofty of pursuits. Many opportunities exist to fulfill this great mitzvah. One of the most amazing is Daf Yomi, which means one page per day. This is a program through which people study one page of the Talmud each day, completing the study of the entire Talmud in seven and a half years. The end of the most recent cycle was January 1, 2020.

The completion of the Daf Yomi cycle has become a major event in the Jewish world. 92,000 people gathered in Met Life Stadium to celebrate the occasion this year, in addition to thousands more in other places. It truly was a sight to behold.

As the new cycle begins, I encourage everyone to explore the area of Jewish learning of their choice. If I can be helpful in that endeavor, please let me know. May we all indeed benefit in this world and the next from all of our pursuits.

Rabbi Evan B. Rubin

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I first wish to thank all the volunteers who helped prepare our annual Shabbat dinner. The food was great and the company of our shul family is always enjoyable.

The shul has continued to work on its own, as well as with the entire Jewish community, to ensure security for our property and our members. Money from a federal grant is still being worked on, and a State of Ohio grant being pursued.

Please see the schedule of February programs as well as celebrating Tu B'Shevat with your fellow shul members.

Steve Marcus, President

SHABBAT & SYNAGOGUE OFFICE CLOSING

The synagogue will be closed for evening Shabbat Services on Friday, February 14th and morning and evening services on Saturday, February 15th.

In addition, the office will be closed on President's Day, Monday, February 17th.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Purim is coming soon. All members of Etz Chayim should be on the lookout for a letter about Sisterhood's annual Shaloch Manos bag fundraiser. These bags, filled with hamantashen, candy, fruit, and other surprises, make great Purim gifts for family, friends, and acquaintances. Please fill out the form and mail it back with your check by February 17.

Recipe of the Month: Artichoke Dip

1 can of artichokes (cut up into small pieces)
 1 ½ C. Hellman's Mayonnaise
 8 oz. bag mozzarella cheese
 French's onion rings (large handfuls)
 ¾ C. shredded Parmesan cheese
 1 2.25 oz. bag of slivered almonds (Put almonds on top of dip)

Mix all ingredients, except almonds and put in shallow, ungreased casserole dish. Put almonds on top of dip. Bake covered for 20 – 25 minutes at 325 degrees. Uncover the last few minutes of baking until the dip begins to bubble and almonds begin to brown. Serve with crackers of your choice.

The next Sisterhood Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 3 at 10:15 a.m. in the Morris & Clara Weinblatt Library. All Sisterhood members are invited to attend.

Congregation Etz Chayim Sisterhood thanks the following businesses for supporting the annual 2020 Donor.

Dorothy Phillips Camp Scholarships

Once again, Etz Chayim announces the Dorothy Phillips Camp Scholarship Fund.

This fund was made possible by a generous bequest of Dorothy Phillips, widow of Philip Phillips. The bequest allows that the money be used for programs to benefit youth. We encourage participation by our children in Jewish summer camp programs.

The earnings of the Dorothy Phillips Scholarship fund will be used for summer overnight camp programs for Etz Chayim children. The following criteria were established by the trustees to be used to determine an approved camp:

Observance of Shabbat
Observance of Kashrut
Jewish Programming
Not affiliated with another Synagogue movement

This would include, but not be limited to:

NCSY Camps
Young Judea Camps
JCC Camps
Approved Summer Israel Educational Experiences

Eligible students will be:

Children of synagogue members enrolled in Etz Chayim Sunday School or who have been confirmed at Etz Chayim.

The earnings of the fund will be distributed each year among the number of approved applicants. Applications are available in the synagogue office.

The deadline for accepting applications for the summer of 2020 is March 31, 2020.

GEORGE AND EVE DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP FUND

George and Eve Davidson, long time members of Congregation Etz Chayim, created a generous endowment for the youth of the synagogue. The fund shall be used annually to send an Etz Chayim student, or students, from families who are unable financially and economically to do so themselves, for a summer or a year in Israel to study and to learn about Judaism and the Jewish people.

Included, for consideration, will be shorter trips which otherwise meet the designated guidelines.

If you are interested in applying for the summer of 2020, applications are available in the synagogue office. All applications are due by March 31, 2020.

Decisions will be made by the middle of April and all applicants will be notified.
